ABOUT THE SHOW

The act scales easily from a compact trio to a full production with dancers, lighting and video screens, making it a reliable, flexible choice for any venue or event looking for guaranteed 90s nostalgia and non-stop energy.

Electro 90s is a high-energy live show celebrating the biggest dance anthems of the 1990s — a ready-made crowd-pleaser built for clubs, theatres, and festivals. Fronted by powerhouse vocals and live synth performances, the show combines authentic electronic sound with a vibrant, modern stage presentation. Every song is a floor-filler your audience already knows — from Dreamer and Groove Is in the Heart to Rhythm of the Night and What Is Love.

FORMATS

FORMAT	DESCRIPTION	IDEAL FOR
Trio	Lead vocalist, keyboardist and keytarist performing live with sequenced drums and synths.	Clubs, private events
Trio & 2 Dancers	Core band with professional club dancers for extra visual energy.	90s nights, holiday parks, mid-size venues
Enhanced Production	Add LED visuals, lasers, and lighting tech for a full festival experience.	Festivals, O2-scale or large corporate events

All formats deliver the same authentic electronic sound — production elements scale to suit the venue and budget.

THE CORE LINE UP

Emma Louise Jackson* — a powerhouse lead vocalist known for her standout performance on The Voice UK — Emma delivers every anthem with stunning authenticity and energy. Her dynamic stage presence and rich, soulful tone capture the spirit of 90s iconic divas, while her years of live experience across top UK venues, ensure every crowd is on its feet.

Kerry Rogers* — an award-winning professional vocalist, Kerry has toured nationally and performed on major cruise line stages around the world. Her commanding stage presence, vocal precision, and versatile performance background have made her a standout talent across genres and venues. With a radiant high voice perfectly suited to 90s hits, Kerry delivers each song with power, emotion, and effortless style — captivating audiences with every performance

Pete Hughes — is a producer, pianist, and synth specialist with a lifelong passion for 90s dance music. Combining technical precision with deep musical knowledge, Pete performs live on keyboards, recreating every synth, bassline, and beat exactly as they were heard on the original records. As the band's musical director and arranger, he ensures every show delivers the unmistakable sound and energy of classic club anthems — fully electronic, live, and true to the era.

Joe Urban — a seasoned organ, piano and synth virtuoso whose touring credits with The Jerseys, Amy Winehouse Experience, UK Pink Floyd Experience and Calling Planet Earth speak to his calibre. With Joe at the keyboards & keytar, he brings the authentic, high-impact electronic sound of the 90s club era to life — live, powerful and immersive.

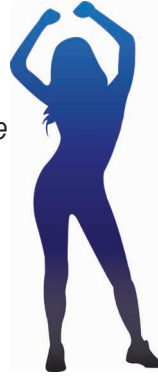

The Electro 90s Dancers — embody the energy and style of the decade that defined the dance floor. Their performances fuse iconic 90s club moves with contemporary choreography, creating a visual spectacle that amplifies every beat. Dressed in bold electro-themed fashion, they bring constant motion, charisma, and connection with the crowd — turning each show into a full-throttle celebration of 90s nightlife. Our dancers complete the unmistakable Electro 90s experience. smile-friendly charisma.
